BELL PRE FACTORY SOLD.

Old Dominion Glass Co. Purchase Defunct Glass Works.

The Old Dominion Glass Co. of which Lorenzo Wolford is president; George D. Hopkins, Secretary and treasurer, and Geo.
H. Schwarzmann, vice-president and general manager, has purchased the plant of the Belle Pre Bottle Company.

A deed was placed on record in the Corporation Court this afternoon transferring to the Old Dominion all the property of the defunct concern. Buildings, machinery, patterns and all other rights are included, the only exception being a plot of ground leased to the Alexandria Glass Works.

The Old Dominion took possession this afternoon and after extensive repairs will commence operations there about November 1st. The Belle Pre is a milk bottle factory and the Old Dominion will continue in this line.

The purchase means much for Alexandria as the opening of the Belle Pre factory will mean the employment of many additional hands.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Announcement is made of the sale of the majority of the stock of the Washington Herald to the McClure Newspaper Syndicate, which has its principal offices in New York. Clinton T. Brainard, president of the Mc-Clure Syndicate, has been elected president of the Washington Herald Company, and Frank T. Coddington, managing editor of the Herald, has been made a director of the company.

William E. Ellis, the Cincinnati merchant, who was found wounded in a hotel room in Chicago Thursday near the body of his wife, confessed to the coroner's jury yesterday that he had killed the woman.

He was held to the grand jury charged with murder. After a conference with members of his wife's family, Ellis abandoned his assertion, made first to the police, that the tragedy was the result of a suicide compact. He assured the entire blame for the killing and devoted his statement to obliterating the impression, given first, that jealousy was the motive of the crime.

Secretary Daniels with Secretaries Garrison and Redfield and their wives, Mrs. Daniels, the Misses Burleson, daughters of the Postmaster General; the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Roosevelt, with Miss Ethel Bagley, Frank Houston, son of the Secretary of Agriculture, and Mrs. Houston and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, left Washington yesterday on the Mayflower to see battle practice of the Atlantic fleet off the Virginia Capes today. President Wilson called off his plans to see the ships in action because of the currency situation in Congress.

White House officials ridiculed stories that the President cancelled his engagement because of illness.

Not only the German Navy but the army suffered from the aviation accidents yesterday. Three army officers belonging to the flying corps were killed in the morning in aero-plane accident.

BIG DISTILLERY IS CONFISCATED

Government Wins in Pocahontas Suit in District Court.

CHARGE BY JUDGE.

Result of Revenue Frauds—Groner Brands Evidence of Colored Witness as False.

Richmond, Oct. 18.—The Federal government yesterday won its suit in the United States District Court for the confiscation of the Pocahontas Distillery, in Petersburg, for violation of the internal revenue law with intent to defraud in evading the payment of tax on whisky. The jury reached a verdict in a surprisingly short time, remaining out of the room only thirty minutes. The Pocahontas is one of the largest grain distilleries in Virginia. It is expected by the revenue authorities that the fight will be carried higher.

Robert H. Talley, counsel for the distillery, argued grounds for setting aside the verdict before Judge E. M. Waddill, Jr., in the United States District Court today. Mr.
Talley bases his hope for an appeal on what he called the court's misin-structions to the jury.

In instructing the jury, Judge Waddill stated that the mere fact that fermenting beer was found in the "slop" tank warranted a verdict for the government.

No criminal proceedings have been instituted in this case. Since the government has succeeded in confiscating the distillery for frauds, it is considered highly probable that the district attorney will attempt to establish the responsibility of the owners.

By previous agreement, the government will take the cash equivalent of the Pocahontas Distillery at the time it was seized in June, instead of the plant itself.

ASLEEP ALL NIGHT IN WELL.

Little Boy Yells Till Exhausted, and Tracks Show His Plight.

Conshohocken, Pa., Oct. 18.—To fall into a well, to scream and cry until he fell weak from exhaustion, then to sleep, was the experience of little Louis Balini, of North Elm street, Wednesday. He was found yesterday morning by his mother after an all-night vigil in which she imagined he was dead or had been kidnapped.

The boy says that while he was playing in the rear of his home he slipped into an old well in which there was no water. When he recovered his sense he says he called for help and kept on calling and crying until after nightfall; then he did not remember anything until his mother's voice awoke him and he found himself in her arms.

He was located in the well from marks made by his feet in sliding, and was brought to the surface on a ladder.

Cab Crushes Newsboy.

Baltimore, Oct. 18.—Running from behind a west bound Baltimore street car, from which he had just alighted at Monroe street, Albert Brummon, a 12 years old, of 441 South Parrish street, a newsboy, was run down by an eastbound car. He died on reaching the hospital.

Before the mortician could bring his car to a standstill, the forward trucks had passed over the little fellow's body.

The boy was scantily clad, and when picked up his newsboy's badge, bearing his name and address, was still on his coat. The papers he carried were scattered about the street.

CONGRESSIONAL RECESS REMOTE

Hopes of Intermission of Labors are Fast
Waning.

RESENTMENT SHOWN.

Members Manifesting Restiveness at President's Action in Continuing Session.

Washington, Oct. 18.—While talk of a recess or adjournment of Congress continues, and is especially pronounced in the House, Senators today said they saw little real prospect of it.
Much soreness prevails among members of the House and Senate over the manner in which the President is keeping Congress here. Democratic members are showing more and more resentment.

However, there will be no adjournment or recess without the White House consent. Democratic Senators who have recently been in the White House have brought back word that it would probably be possible to arrange a recess or adjournment if a definite date were agreed upon by the Senate, when the bill would be reported by the Banking and Currency committee, and when it would be voted on next session.

However, there is no sign that such agreement can be reached. Unless the President shifts his attitude, therefore, no recess is looked for.
Leader Underwood, of the House, has been conferring with the President with a view to reaching an agreement on a recess or adjournment, and Minority Leader Mann has predicted a recess or adjournment.

CRIES HERSELF TO DEATH.

Little Girl's Grief Over Marriage of Sister Proves Fatal.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18.—A little girl of 10 years died of grief Wednesday night because her dear big sister married and left her. The little one was Annie Cwik, whose sister Helen was married Tuesday to John Wrib-laski.

Anna began to cry when she saw her sister walking down the aisle toward the altar in St. John's Polish Catholic church. After the ceremony she threw herself into the arms of her sister, sobbing violently. She went home still crying. Her mother and her brothers and the little children stood about her. The girl could not stop weeping.

She finally wept herself into insensibility. A doctor was summoned. He became alarmed. Then suddenly it was all over. Anna was dead.

Discrimination Charged.

That the Southern Railway and its connections charge higher rates on lumber to Philadelphia from Southern points when it is routed through the Potomac yards and Washington than they do when the routing is through Norfolk, is shown in a complaint filed today with the Interstate Commerce Commission by a Philadelphia lumber firm.

This firm shipped lumber to itself in Philadelphia from South Carolina.
Because it was shipped via Washington, a rate of 23 1/2 cents a hundred pounds was charged, because, it is alleged that shipments routed via this city did not get the water competitive rate, 2 1/2 cents lower.

Want 5,000 Deaconesses.

Twice in a day was the wickedness of New York City emphasized yesterday before the convention of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, meeting at the Foundry M. E.
Church. A plea was made for 5,000 deaconesses to invade the great East Side of New York, and the city was called by another speaker, "the greatest mission field in all the world."

THREE KILLED, EIGHT HURT.

Men Caught in Collapsed Garage, Wrecked by Explosion.

Anderson, S. C., Oct. 18.—Three men were killed and eight injured here Thursday night, when the garage of A. L. Todd collapsed after a gasoline explosion. Edward Layton, of Spartansburg, struck a match to light the lamp of his automobile as it was being filled with gasoline. The explosion followed and the building caught fire.

As the firemen were fighting the flames a wall fell killing William E.
Campbell and Robert Dodd, Jr., and an unidentified man whose body has not yet been recovered. Five firemen were so badly injured that they had to be taken to a hospital.
Layton and a boy, Isaac Fein, were severely burned.

FOR COMPULSORY VOTING.

Secretary Daniels Favors Forcing Men to Use the Franchise.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 18.—In advocating compulsory voting Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, in the Yale News yesterday, says:
"We have come to a time in our national life when the compulsory ballot must decide for itself. Sovereign voters of this republic are abdicating the most important duty of citizenship. Should they be allowed in this way to desert, any more than a man should be allowed the right to desert the army in time of war? If we require our citizens, as we properly do, to serve on the jury, to bear arms when called upon, to obey any process of the court, however much he may object to giving testimony, to work on the roads in many districts, and pay taxes whether he approves them or not, may we not also make it compulsory for him to vote? The chief and most
